

All About The Creative Path Workshop

Hi guys, I'm so excited, it's all happening - I finally get to announce that enrollment is NOW OPEN for the Creative Path Workshop!

I just wanted to take a quick minute here to let you know how the workshop works, because I'd love to have you join us.

The Creative Path Workshop is a beautiful program that I'm a little bit in love with, and it helps you move past fears, frustration, and doubt, so you can create your best art, discover your own, unique style, keep inspired, keep motivated, and build a prolific art practice that you really love.

Over years of study and practice, I created this formula to radically transform your creative process. And I'm so excited and so happy to share it with you, right here.

So if you don't know me yet, hi! I'm Meghan Oona Clifford, and I've been an artist all my life. I earned my master's degree ten years ago so I could teach at the highest level, and then I created The Creative Path Workshop to help artists like you. There's really no other course out there like this and that's why I'm so stoked to bring it to you guys.

Your transformation

Once you know these specific steps, some amazing changes happen and you can start living your most creative life. And that feels so fulfilling and so right, because you actually start to inspire people around you, and the world, with not only your art, but with your devotion to living big, coming alive, and fulfilling your purpose. This is an art practice and an art class, but it overflows onto the rest of your life.

Are you ready to become an artist who uplifts and inspires humanity? Hopefully YES, because the world needs you right now. It's artists who push humans to evolve forward, because art provides beauty, truth, and understanding for humanity.

I've now helped a ton of artists, at every level, clear away obstacles and get ready to take the next step in their art practice. When I first started out, I had to overcome a ton of resistance, fear, and blocks, so I've been there and I know how hard it can be, but I also know the path through that all.

Now, I love my prolific art practice, and I'm honored to say my work is out there, spreading my message to uplift the world. And that feels so good, after all these years of work. I feel like I put in the work and did it the hard way, so you don't have to. And it all started when I dedicated myself to The Creative Path.

This workshop is priceless

Now at this point, the big question is - Is it worth it? And I want you to know, this workshop has SO much content and value. It's worth at least as much as a college course. It is packed and loaded with amazing content. So I'm offering it for much less

And I'm offering it for much, much less than a college class would be, because I want this to be accessible for everyone. So there's even a payment plan to make this really easy and affordable.

When I think about how exciting it feels to achieve this level of creative prolific-ness, and confidence, and skill, and flow and inspiration, I'm thinking about all the artists in this community.

I've heard from so many of you, thank you! - about how excited you are about the workshop helping you become an amazing artist and fulfill your potential. And I'm hearing a ton of excitement about the workshop opening, and I'm feeling it too! And I can't wait to help you take those next steps toward your highest creativity.

Confidence, style, and purpose

So, couple thoughts - for the beginners in here, the Creative Path Workshop is perfect for overcoming those insecurities you may struggle with, because it instantly adds a lot of work to your portfolio, so that gives you more confidence, and even more importantly, the exercises within the workshop are specifically designed to guide you to your unique style, because I know that can be a challenge to figure out at first.

Now for all you professional artists here, the workshop instantly jumpstarts your art practice, by deepening and clarifying your purpose, and we also go very deep into designing your best possible art practice. Plus the exercises teach you a completely new way to approach art-making. In short, it makes you a better artist. And now is the time to come alive in your art practice, because the world needs your voice now more than ever.

What you get

When you join The Creative Path Workshop, you get 28 lessons with demos, you'll have created 32 drawings, and we'll finish three large paintings together. And on top of that, we'll go really deep with five Q&A sessions, plus there are so many yummy bonuses.

but all this to become the kind of prolific artist you want to be - someone who uplifts and inspires the world with your art.

You have access to the course for six months, and you can work through the program at your own pace, from the comfort of your own home. And you'll find that absorbing the material at your own leisure helps make it that much more real in your life.

You'll also get me, walking right alongside you, step-by-step, the entire way. I'll be answering questions and offering support the whole time. You'll learn how to be confident in your work because you uncover your very own style and message for the world. So you know the art you're making is YOUR art.

The exercises and lessons act like keys to unlock your style and voice. You do have to show up you have to do the work, but it's actually super fun, too. It's so rewarding and it's so life-affirming.

We're going to cover a ton of ground in the upcoming weeks, and you will come out the other side with a prolific, uplifting art practice that you really LOVE. You'll have all the tools you need to renew your motivation and inspiration, so you can best create your unique art...

So, I've said a lot already, and you're probably thinking this sounds pretty good, and it is, but there's more! I wanted to make this course really, really powerful for you, so I added a bunch of exclusive bonuses, and I may have gone a little overboard with these...

All these bonuses are worth so much, honestly I could've made a whole other course with them, but I'm giving you them here because I really wanted you to have every tool possible, to be the most inspiring artist you can be.

Bonus #1: Tutorials

The first bonus is a page of tutorials created to help you improve your skills and confidence as an artist. Those bonuses include videos on drawing and painting techniques plus - and this is a big one - how to use Photoshop to prepare your art for printing and for sharing online, because I get asked that so much. And you'll also learn about making mock ups for your paintings.

That type of training alone, would cost hundreds or thousands dollars in a college class, but you'll get this for free when you join the workshop.

Bonus #2: Community

The second bonus is a crucial component of being an artist, and I hear from so many of you that you lack this. It's community. You get a mastermind community of supportive artists to help inspire you and lift you up along your journey.

I hear from a lot of you that you don't have artist friends, or you live faraway from a cultural center, or you just don't really mesh with the artists you do know. So this mastermind group will heal all of that because simply having a supportive community of artists, is priceless. I'm really excited to get to offer that. And also, this brings us to the final big bonus, I'm so excited about. I've been working on this for awhile...

Bonus #3: Artist Chats

You get exclusive access to several illuminating artist chats. You get to hear from nine incredible artists - all their behind-the-scenes stuff. They share their tips and insights about their art practice. You'll hear about their unique journeys and their strategies to live a rewarding artistic life. These artists are so cool and generous to open up their stories and they have so much wisdom to share with you along your way.

Now, this workshop, like I mentioned, like I mentioned, is worth two or three college level classes, at least, which could set you back thousands of dollars. This is a lot of carefully curated content for a way better value.

So your investment with the Early Bird price, is just $390 (save $100).

If you sign up in time, you can even get in for just $180 three times, using the Easy Payment Plan. It is a great, great value for what you get.

If you want to get over the stuff that holds you back and inspire the world with your message, then you really have to show up and commit. And I just want you to imagine how your life will be different if you devote yourself to your art practice in this big way.

So you're invited to go ahead and click the button below to join me in the workshop. Oh and I have one more bonus to mention, which is so cool...

Bonus #4: The Creative Path Library

It's a beautiful bonus called the Creative Path Library. When you register, you will get ten downloadable worksheets designed to instantly activate your art practice with hundreds of specific prompts.

Plus you get a master playlist and a master booklist, And all of that really provides a strong, beautiful foundation for you during this transformational course. I just know you're going to love it.

I just want to assure you this is completely risk-free. You have a full two weeks to decide if it's right for you, so you can feel secure about joining, because I know you'll love it. You know, I'm not like some magician for your art practice. But over the last twenty years, I just did the work to create the best exercises that provide the biggest benefit.

And all that work became The Creative Path Workshop. I refined the lessons, I added to it, and I perfected it. The result is this gorgeous system that can be applied very successfully over and over. You know I really strongly believe this is your time and now is the time to step up, because there's never been a better, more important time to do creative work - to say Yes! to jumpstart your art practice, to take it to the highest level. So click the button, join me now...

You know, the Creative Path, it really works. It worked for me, at such a deep, healing, beautiful level, I want to share it with you.

So click below and I hope to see you in the workshop,
